

HTML Guidelines Session 3

In this session you should hope to cover:

- Separate the style and html using a CSS file,
- Lists -ordered and unordered,
- Using an image as a link,
- Tables,
- Try get them to change someone of the table elements using the css file

You should try to get the kids to use the different elements as they see fit as most of them are working on a website of their own design.